To

S i r,

With reference to your official memoranudm No.1805/Muz. 202-21-2 dated 30th September 1921 forwarding for report the petition of B.Amrutaraje Urs of Belur, complaining that on 23rd August 1921 thirtham and ~~para~~ prasadam were given to him after these were given to vyasyas against mamul, I have the honor to state that the Amildar of Belur Taluk reports that it is not possible to elicit the truth and is of poinion that a detailed enquiry at the place in the matter will create ill-feelings between the people who are now on amicable terms. The Amildar further reports that the matter was discussed with the Muzrai Superintendent who had been there on tour, who seems to have thought it desirable to obtain information on the point from the Palace. I therefore request, that, a kind refereone may be made to the palace, if necessary, and instructions issued for the guidance of the temple servants in future.

I have the honor to be,

S i r,

Your most obedient servant.

B. Venkoba Rao

Deputy Commissioner,
